

PCNSW Professional Education Day

Friday 24 May 2019, Art Gallery of NSW

Palliative Care
NEW SOUTH WALES

Time	Location	Session & speaker/s
9.30am	Ground level	Art Gallery of New South Wales doors open to attendees
9.30am - 10am	Yiribana Foyer, Lower Level 3	Registration desk opens
10am - 10.15am	Domain Theatre, Lower Level 3	Welcome to the AGNSW and Acknowledgement of country Danielle Gullotta, Access Programs Producer AGNSW Introduction Palliative Care NSW
10.15am - 11.00am	Domain Theatre, Lower Level 3	Compassion & Empathy - What Matters Most Kate Munro, CNC, Hunter New England Health, End of Life Care Coordinator This session will offer an opportunity to explore how important compassion and empathy are in offering and receiving Palliative Care. This year's National Palliative Care Week theme, What Matters Most will provide the backdrop to this exploration.
11am - 11.20am	Yiribana Foyer, Lower Level 3	Morning tea
11.20am - 12.15pm	Gallery spaces, Ground level	Arts Engagement in Gallery Spaces Facilitated by AGNSW artist educators Strategies for engagement in the moment through art
12.15pm - 1pm	Domain Theatre, Lower Level 3	AGNSW and UTS Arts Engagement Program Dr Gail Kenning, Research Associate at University of Technology and Danielle Gullotta Access Programs Producer AGNSW Understanding what matters most facilitated through art. Navigating difficult conversations through art.
1pm - 2pm	Yiribana Foyer, Lower Level 3	Lunch
2pm - 2.45pm	Domain Theatre, Lower Level 3	Death Anxiety and Psilocybin Professor Liz Lobb, Professor of Palliative Care, Calvary Health Care Kogarah Liz will provide an update on the current status of psilocybin and its use in advanced cancer with particular relevance to end of life distress.
2.45pm - 3.30pm	Domain Theatre, Lower Level 3	A picture tells a thousand words - A volunteer biography service Julie Gissing and Robyn Swanson, Biography Service Coordinators, Sacred Heart Health Service Julie and Robyn will be talking about the Sacred Heart Biography Service, a free service offered to all clients of the Community Palliative Care Team. Trained biography volunteers capture people's life stories which are printed and presented to them in a book.
3.30pm - 4pm	Domain Theatre, Lower Level 3	AGNSW and UTS Arts Engagement Program development, resources and evaluation - next steps Dr Gail Kenning and Danielle Gullotta
4pm - 4.50pm	Function space, Ground level	Networking drinks and concluding remarks Palliative Care NSW

