BRENDAN MYHILL
End of Life Care Coordinator, St Vincents Hospital

JULIE MECHAM
Palliative Care Project Officer, Murrumbidgee PHN

LGBTQ+ PALLIATIVE CARE

ONLINE WEBINAR

National Palliative Care Week 2025

When can I get palliative care?

What can I expect from palliative care?

What if I'm a carer for someone in palliative care?

How do I access palliative care?

Lesbian, gay, bi+, trans and queer (LGBTQ+) people, and People Living with HIV (PLHIV), carers and friends are invited to an online webinar discussing palliative and end of life care.

Join us to demystify palliative care and learn what to expect, how to plan for the end, and how to support yourself and loved ones.

Our guest speakers will be Julie Mecham, Palliative Care Project Officer, Murrumbidgee PHN and Brendan Myhill, End of Life Care Coordinator, St Vincent's Hospital.

This webinar is open to people who are 18 years and over, and of all genders, sexualities, and cultural backgrounds.

Date: Tuesday 13 May

Time: 6pm to 7pm

Register here: form.123formbuilder.com/6829021/registration-palliative-care-online-webinar

REGISTER HERE

If you have any questions, contact Zoe Hinton

E: zhinton@acon.org.au
ph: 02 9206 2126

Palliative Care New South Wales

LYE Living OLDER Visibly and Engaged

Funded by the NSW Ministry of Health, supported by Palliative Care New South Wales